

How to seek support for your child or adolescent:

A comprehensive and confidential specialised counselling service is available to children and adolescents up to the age of 16 years who have been exposed to Domestic and Family Violence.

The Counsellor will initially interview the mother/caregiver without the child or adolescent to complete a comprehensive assessment, then an appointment time will be arranged with the child or adolescent to be seen.

Call the Domestic Violence Resource Service (Mackay & Region) Inc. (07) 4957 3888 to arrange an appointment.
